He Testifies in Famous Cathonn Bribery Case. He Testifies in Famous Cathonn Birthery Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL, May 17—Rudolph Spreckels, a San Francisco banker, who contributed $100,000 to prosecute an inquiry into municipal conditions in 1905, was called to the witness stand to-day in the bribery trial of President Patriok Cahoun, of the United Rallreads. He gave a detailed account of his reasons for opposing Mr. Cahouns plans for street railway development and of the manner in which he became a supporter of the prosecution.

Assistant District Attorney Heney, replying to a statement by one of the attorneys for the defense, declared that he had thrown down the bars, had summoned Mr. Spreckels as a witness for the first time in any of the bribery trials, and that he stood ready to meet any line of inquiry the defense might choose.

Captain Hains Will Probably Begin Sentence To-Day.

FLUSHING, N. Y., May 17.—Unless some unlooked-for legal obstacle is interposed, Captain Peter C. Hains, 3r., U. S. A., who was convicted of manslaughter in the first degree for killing William E. Annis at the Bayside Yacht Club last August, will be taken to Sing Sing to-morrow, and at once will begin serving a sentence imposed today by Justice Garretson in the Supreme Court. The sentence is an indeterminate one, under which the minimum period of imprisonment will be light years, and the maximum sixteen years. His time in prison must be spent at hard labor.

Counsel for Hains late to-day practically agreed to their client's immeriate.
